The BRIEF BOOK

1937

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
OF THE
ATLANTA LAW SCHOOL, ATLANTA, GEORGIA

DEDICATION

TO

ROBERT C. W. RAMSPECK

THE STAFF OF THE BRIEF BOOK OF NINETEEN HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SEVEN DEDICATE THIS VOLUME IN APPRECIATION OF THE OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENTS OF ONE OF THE MOST ILLUSTRIOUS AND CONSCIENTIOUS GRADUATES OF THE ATLANTA LAW SCHOOL. ROBERT C. W. RAMSPECK GRADUATED FROM THE ATLANTA LAW SCHOOL JUNE 1, 1920.

ROBERT C. W. RAMSPECK

*Representative, United States Congress
Fifth Congressional District of Georgia*

IN APPRECIATION

HIS TEACHING IS STIMULATING AND CONSTRUCTIVE, COMPREHENDING NOT ONLY THE LAW, BUT ALSO THE REASON BEHIND AND WITHIN THE LAW: "CHANGE IN FUNDAMENTAL GOVERNMENTAL STRUCTURE SHOULD BE ACCOMPLISHED ONLY IN AN ORDERLY, CONSTITUTIONAL, AND LEGAL WAY, AFTER THE DELIBERATED CONVICTION THAT WHAT WE ARE TO RECEIVE IS MORE PRECIOUS THAN THE RIGHTS WE ARE ASKED TO SURRENDER."

IN THOUGHTFUL CONTEMPLATION OF HIS SAGE PHILOSOPHY, AND IN COMMEMORATION OF HIS QUALITIES AS A TEACHER AND THINKER, WE DEDICATE THESE PAGES

TO

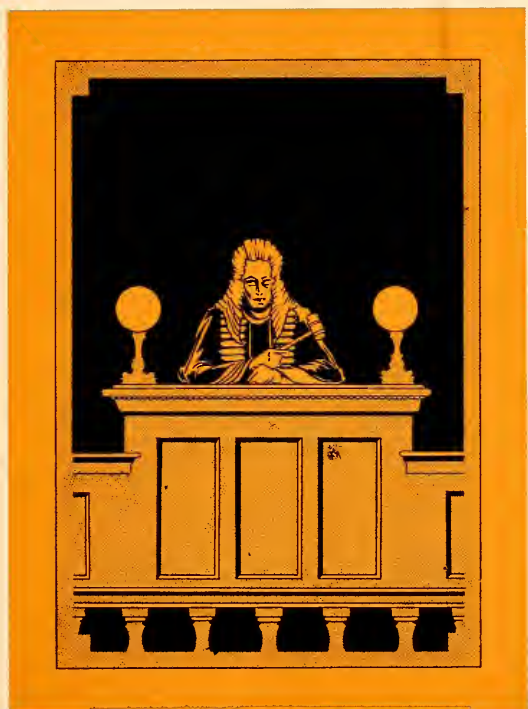

LEROY FREDERICK WYNNE

LERoy FREDERICK WYNNE

Born in Atlanta, Georgia; entered the employ of the Georgia Railway & Power Company in 1905; entered Atlanta Law School in 1910, and graduated in 1912; made Manager, Department of Injuries and Damages, Georgia Power Company, 1920; first taught in the Atlanta Law School in 1925.

Senior Class History

THE CLARION CALL of Opportunity having sounded by way of announcement of the date on which the Atlanta Law School would begin its sessions in the Fall of 1934, there matriculated a group of individuals inherently bound together with some indefinable spirit that proved to be the common urge to study law. Many of us entered school with the purpose of becoming practicing attorneys, and others to study law as a step toward the realization of particular ambitions.

We began with the cardinal principles in Elementary Law taught by Dean Douglas, and there learned about many customs among brother lawyers. Toward the end of our Freshman year we discussed a "legal entity" with Mr. Edgar Watkins, Jr., in the Partnership class. When we were Juniors "Shorty" Andrews in the Evidence class gave us many pointers on how to win verdicts.

In our Senior year Mr. Sams taught us how to get into a court of Equity; and Mr. Wynne told us in Constitutional Law that sometimes "Might makes Right". We incorporated with Mr. McClatchey, made our wills with Mr. Shelor, and with Mr. Hooper, Jr., looked for contingent remainders.

Ours is a class of many first and last experiences in the life of the institution that has come to mean so much to us. We were the last class to begin the study of law in the old quarters of the school on Pryor Street, and the last class to witness the annual first night addresses by the faculty—a custom well known to Atlanta Law School students of other days.

It was during our last year of study that the school was accepted for membership in the National Association of Law Schools. The number of class room hours had to be increased to conform to the requirements of the Association, which took away the Friday evening hour which previously had been devoted to the two literary societies.

Another first experience, we dare say, was the unanimous election of officers for the last half of our senior year.

We have sought to learn something of the theory and history of the law and have studied to become attorneys with practical rather than academic minds, with sound and ethical principles, and with a basic knowledge of the laws of Georgia.

Whether entering upon the law as a life work or having taken it only for its use in other fields of endeavor, each member of the Senior Class of 1937 will have a richer and more abundant life because of his understanding and appreciation of the law; and because of our association together and with our able instructors, we will have become better lawyers, better citizens, better men and women.

—ANNABELLE COX, 1937.

INDIVIDUAL COMPETITION this year replaced the traditional Inter-Society rivalry that has stimulated much interest in previous years. All contestants presented very constructive arguments and points to uphold their particular side of the question. The enviable distinction of champion debater was awarded to Mr. Schell of the Student Assembly, also of the Freshman Class. Mr. Schell's ease of delivery, quick wit, and approach of the subject well qualified him as the Atlanta Law School's champion debater. Mr. Allen of the Kilpatrick Literary Society won the honor of being judged the Atlanta Law School's second best debater. He is a member of the Kilpatrick Literary Society and is also a Freshman. Mr. Allen very ably upheld his side of the question and presented a coherent argument for the affirmative. The Freshmen really went to town this year by winning both first and second award.

ALEXANDER HAMILTON STEPHENS (CHI) CHAPTER

SIGMA NU PHI FRATERNITY (Legal) was founded in 1902 at the National University Law School in Washington, D. C. It was incorporated February 12, 1903, under the Act of Congress establishing incorporation laws for the District of Columbia, a charter being granted to the founders of the parent chapter, Joseph H. Choate (Alpha) Chapter of National University Law School. Alexander Hamilton Stephens (Chi) Chapter was founded at the Atlanta Law School in 1927.

The primary purpose of Sigma Nu Phi is to encourage excellence in scholastic work, to cultivate character of a sterling quality, and to uphold the standards of the legal profession and perpetuate the spirit of service in the professional world.

The National Convention of Sigma Nu Phi will be held at the Atlanta Biltmore Hotel, April 30, and May 1. Convention plans were formulated by the Alumni Chapter in co-operation with the Active Chapter.

Under the leadership of Chancellor "Chatty" Sullivan, Sigma Nu Phi has had a banner year, and it is with a heavy heart that graduating members have to say adieu to the Active Chapter of 1936-37. Brothers, keep up the good work. We'll be seeing you in the Alumni Chapter, and perhaps in the Halls of Justice.

Delta Theta Phi

WAYNE SENATE

DELTA THETA PHI LAW FRATERNITY, second in size only to Phi Delta Phi, had its origin in the convention held at the La Salle Hotel in Chicago on September 26, 1913, where three national fraternities, Delta Phi Delta, founded at the Cleveland Law School of Baldwin-Wallace College, Cleveland, Ohio, in 1901; Alpha Kappa Phi, organized at Northwestern University School of Law, Chicago, Illinois, in 1902; and Theta Lambda Phi, established at Dickerson School of Law, Carlisle, Pennsylvania, in 1903, met in joint session.

Realizing the strength that comes from unity, these three legal fraternities wisely formulated the plan of merging into one national fraternity. Thus Delta Theta Phi was founded. Now in its twenty-fourth year, Delta Theta Phi enjoys a position of national prominence, having fifty-two active senates located in the leading law schools of the United States and twenty-five alumni senates. Wayne Senate enjoys the distinction of being the first senate to be installed after the amalgamation, the date of its installation being March 21, 1914.

Being primarily a legal fraternity, Delta Theta Phi devotes its efforts to the development of high scholarship and legal learning, with the desire to inspire within its members a high regard for the noblest qualities of manhood. Its objects are to emphasize the upbuilding of character through legal learning and to cultivate a true friendship and brotherly love among fellow students of the law.

Iota Tau Tau

MU CHAPTER

AT THE END OF ANOTHER SORORITY YEAR we look back upon our work with pleasure and pride. The growth of the fraternity spirit has been proven, during this past year, by the growth of the sorority, both in numbers and in the scope of activities.

Iota Tau Tau is not an honorary sorority, though one of its foundation stones is high scholarship—nor is it strictly a social sorority. One of our projects is a scholarship fund, established nationally in 1935, and in the local chapter during last year. The purpose of the fund is to benefit worthy and outstanding women law students, who find themselves in need of funds to complete a legal education.

The business of Mu Chapter is conducted by ten standing committees, each in charge of a monthly meeting during the year, thereby injecting individuality into the scope of scheduled activities. A magazine of sorority activities, called "Dixie Musings," is a conspicuous innovation of the program of this year.

We strive in continuous thought and action for the promotion of women in the legal profession, always looking toward contributing our efforts for the inspiration of all women in entering this worthy profession.

Bar Examination Review

The Atlanta Law School was established in 1890. It offers a three-year course of study leading to the degree of LL.B. Its sessions are held in the evening which allows its students to be self-supporting, or to gain practical experience in law offices and courts. Inquiries should be addressed to the office of the Dean, 1400 Rhodes-Haverty Building, Atlanta, Ga.
